MARK J. BROSNAN

FOUNDING ATTORNEY | BROSNAN & ASSOCIATES, LLP

For the last 34 years, Mark J. Brosnan has represented countless families, individual and institutional fiduciaries, businesses and financial institutions in a wide range of matters, including estate planning and administration, Surrogate's Court litigation, real estate and business transactions, taxation and commercial litigation. The lead attorney for Brosnan & Associates, LLP in Garden City, Brosnan serves as a trusted advisor to many families and business owners throughout the state.

Prior to and during law school, Brosnan was an accountant with a certified public accounting firm, where he gained experience as an auditor and tax practitioner.

From 1988 to 1994, Brosnan practiced law with a prominent Long Island firm and gained experience in real estate, banking and commercial litigation matters. He then went on to co-found and manage Brosnan & Hegler before leading Brosnan & Associates, LLP. His firms have been considered among Long Island's most reputable trusts and estates law firms.

Over the course of his career, Brosnan has handled several thousand estate planning and estate and trust administration matters. He has also prepared and filed thousands of estate tax and gift tax returns, fiduciary and individual income tax returns and fiduciary accountings. As a result, Brosnan has deep expertise in estate planning, estate administration, real estate transactions, estate, gift and income taxation, and Surrogate's Court litigation involving estates and trusts.

From January 2001 through December 2011, Brosnan also represented the Nassau County Public Administrator, which administers estates of Nassau County residents who die without wills and without known relatives. He has been appointed by the Surrogate's Courts as a guardian ad litem to represent infants and persons with a disability in numerous proceedings. Brosnan has also authored several publications for the New York State Bar Association and charitable organizations and conducted estate planning seminars presented by various financial institutions, professional associations and charitable organizations.

Brosnan has attained an AV Preeminent rating from Martindale-Hubbell, the highest rating available. He is a graduate of St. John's University School of Law. He also holds a Bachelor of Science in accounting from St. John's.
